SUBJECTS

AMYLOIDOSIS
intestinal amyloidosis. 26(4):69, 1985 oa

ANASTOMOSIS
a new method for large bowel reanastomosis after Hartmann resection. 26(1):46, 1985 oa

ANGIOGRAPHY
a comparison of angiography and ultrasound in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(5):31, 1985 oa

ANTIBIOTICS
prophylaxis in surgery with third generation cephalosporins.26(5):40, 1985. oa

ATRESIA
biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

BIOPSY
the hazards of pancreatic biopsy: fact or fiction? 26(5):75, 1985 oa

BRANCHIAL CLEFT SINUS
second branchial cleft sinus. 26(3):24, 1985 oa

BREAST
postmastectomy lymphangiosarcoma: clinical and pathologic features. 26(3): 73, 1985 oa update in primary potentially curable breast cancer therapy. 26(2):13, 1985 oa

BULIMIA
gastric rupture and loss of leg pulses in a bulimorectic patient. 26(6):79, 1985 oa

BYPASS, VASCULAR
sequential femorocrural bypass grafting. 26(3):51, 1985 oa transposition of the inferior vena cava complicating an aortofemoral bypass graft. 26(4):34, 1985 oa

CANCER, BREAST
postmastectomy lymphangiosarcoma: clinical and pathologic features. 26(3): 73, 1985 oa

update in primary potentially curable breast cancer therapy. 26(2):13, 1985 oa

CANCER, FACE
giant skin cancers of the head and face; treatment by electrocoagulation. 26(3):29, 1985 oa

CANCER, GALLBLADDER
carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985. oa

CANCER, HEAD
giant skin cancers of the head and face. 26(3):29, 1985 oa

CAROTID ARTERIES
a comparison of angiography and ultrasound in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(5):31, 1985 oa

the management of acute internal carotid occlusion: a reassessment. 26(2):75, 1985 oa noninvasive techniques in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(4):55, 1985 oa

CEPHALOSPORINS
prophylaxis in surgery with third generation cephalosporins. 26(5):40, 1985. oa

CHOLECYSTITIS
emphysematous cholecystitis: a case report. 26(1):51, 1985 oa

COLON
acute volvulus of the sigmoid colon. 26(3):65, 1985 oa chronic constipation: unusual etiology. 26(4):79, 1985 oa neonatal necrotizing enterocolitis: an overview. 26(5):57, 1985 oa.

a new method for large bowel anastomosis after Hartmann resection 26(1):46, 1985 oa.

stercoraceous ulcer and perforation of the colon: a case report and review of the literature. 26(1):57, 1985 oa.

COLOSTOMY
a new method of stoma control. 26(3):81, 1985 oa

COMPUTERS,
see MICROCOMPUTERS

CONGENITAL DEFECTS
annular pancreas in the adult. 26(4):13, 1985 oa

biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

congenital jejunal mucosal diaphragm causing small bowel obstruction in an adult. 26(1):66, 1985 oa patent omphalomesenteric cysts. 26(2):91, 1985 oa pulmonary sequestration. 26(1):70, 1985 oa

second branchial cleft sinus. 26(3):24, 1985 oa

CYSTS
nonparasitic splenic cysts: case presentations and a review of the literature. 26(6):37, 1985 oa patent omhalomesenteric cysts. 26(2):91, 1985 oa retrotracheal, obstructing mediastinal thymic cyst. 26(1):69, 1985 oa

ELECTROCOAGULATION
giant skin cancers of the head and face: treatment by electrocoagulation. 26(3):29, 1985 oa

ELECTRODIAGNOSTIC TESTING
the current role of electrodiagnostic testing in thoracic outlet syndromes. 26(6):49, 1985 oa

EXTREMITIES
direct venous surgery for venous valvular insufficiency of the lower extremity: updated experience. 26(1):35, 1985 oa

FISTULA
development of a cerebral spinal fluid fistula following a stab wound to the neck. 26(3):47, 1985 oa

FLUORESCENCE
quantitative use of fluorescence in planning soft tissue incisions. 26(2):63, 1985 oa

GALLBLADDER
biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985. oa emphysematous cholecystitis: a case report. 26(1):51, 1985 oa

GANGRENE
spontaneous gas gangrene of the liver. 26(6):31, 1985 oa development of a cerebral spinal fluid fistula following a stab wound to the neck. 26(3):47, 1985 oa

FLUORESCENCE
quantitative use of fluorescence in planning soft tissue incisions. 26(2):63, 1985 oa

GALLBLADDER
biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985. oa emphysematous cholecystitis: a case report. 26(1):51, 1985 oa

GANGRENE
spontaneous gas gangrene of the liver. 26(6):31, 1985 oa

Index continued

GASTRIC BYPASS
calibrated gastrojejunostomy for gastric bypass: using the EEA stapler. 26(3):40, 1985 oa technique of anterior wall roux-en-y gastric bypass for the treatment of morbid obesity. 26(2):46, 1985 oa

GASTROESOPHAGEAL REFLUX
a silicone prosthesis for gastroesophageal reflux: long-term results. 26(1):29, 1985 oa

GASTROSCHISIS
the use of an automatic stapling device for rapid creation of a silastic chimney in patients with gastroschisis. 26(4):63, 1985 oa

HARTMANN RESECTION
a new method for large bowel anastomosis after Hartmann resection. 26(1):46, 1985 oa

HEAD & NECK SURGERY
massive parathyroid hyperplasia, 26(4):45, 1985 oa preventing postoperative wound infections in major oncologic head and neck surgery. 26(4):23, 1985 oa chronic constipation: unusual etiology. 26(4):79, 1985.

HERNIA

diaphragmatic hernia. 26(6):68, 1985 oa routine rapid preperitoneal marlex mesh buttressing in the repair of inguinal hernias. 26(5):22, 1985 oa

Spigelian hernias in infants and children. 26(6):73, 1985 oa

HYPERCALCEMIA
massive parathyroid hyperplasia. 26(4):45, 1985 oa

HYPERTENSION
renovascular hypertension and pancake kidney. 26(6):44, 1985 oa

INCISIONS
quantitative use of fluorescence in planning soft tissue incisions. 26(2):63, 1985 oa

INFECTIONS
preventing postoperative wound infections in major oncologic head and neck surgery. 26(4):23, 1985 oa

prophylaxis in surgery with third generation cephalosporins. 26(5):40, 1985. oa spontaneous gas gangrene of the liver. 26(6):31, 1985 oa urinary tract infections. 26(5):99, 1985 s

INTESTINE
carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985. oa intestinal amyloidosis. 26(4):69, 1985 oa

JEJUNUM
congenital jejunal mucosal diaphragm causing small bowel obstruction in an adult. 26(1):66, 1985 oa

nephroscopic manipulation of stones. 26(2):93, 1985 s renal oncocytoma. 26(2):85, 1985 oa

renovascular hypertension and pancake kidney. 26(6):44, 1985 oa

LEG
gastric rupture and loss of leg pulses in a bulimorectic patient. 26(6):79, 1985 oa stasis leg ulcers: compression therapy localized by use of sponge rubber. 26(5):15, 1985 oa

biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

spontaneous gas gangrene of the liver. 26(6):31, 1985 oa

LUNGS
bilateral simultaneous pneumothorax: management considerations. 26(5):87, 1985 oa

LYMPHANGIOSARCOMA
postmastectomy lymphangiosarcoma: clinical and pathologic features. 26(3):73, 1985 oa

MASTECTOMY
postmastectomy lymphangiosarcoma: clinical and pathologic features. 26(3):73, 1985 oa

MEDIASTINUM
retrotracheal, obstructing mediastinal thymic cyst. 26(2):69, 1985 oa

MESENTERY
patent omphalomesenteric cysts. 26(2):91, 1985 oa

MESH
routine rapid preperitoneal Marlex mesh buttressing in the repair of all inguinal hernias. 26(5):22, 1985 oa

MICROCOMPUTERS
microcomputers in surgical practice and research. 26(3):89, 1985 s

MUSCULOCUTANEOUS
musculocutaneous flaps. 26(6):85, 1985 s

NECK
development of a cerebral spinal fluid fistula following a stab wound to the neck. 26(3):47, 1985 oa nonthyroid tumors of the neck. 26(1):13, 1985 oa

NEONATAL
biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

neonatal necrotizing enterocolitis: an overview. 26(5):57, 1985 oa

NEPHROSCOPY
nephroscopic manipulation of stones. 26(2):93, 1985 s

NONINVASIVE TECHNIQUES
noninvasive techniques in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(4):55, 1985 oa

NUTRITION
morbid obesity. 26(1):71, 1985 s

OBESITY
morbid obesity. 26(1):71, 1985 s

technique of anterior wall roux-en-y gastric bypass for the treatment of morbid obesity. 26(2):46, 1985 oa

OBSTRUCTION
carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985 congenital jejunal mucosal diphragm causing small bowel obstruction in an adult. 26(1):66, 1984 oa

OCCLUSION, ARTERIAL
the management of acute internal carotid occlusion: a reassessment. 26(2):75, 1985 oa

ONCOCYTOMA
renal oncocytoma. 26(2):85, 1985 oa

PANCREAS
annular pancreas in the adult. 26(4):13, 1985 oa

the hazards of pancreatic biopsy: fact or fiction. 26(5):75, 1985 oa pancreatic trauma. 26(6):11, 1985 oa

PARATHYROID
massive parathyroid hyperplasia: case report. 26(4):45, 1985 oa

PEDIATRIC SURGERY
biliary atresia. 26(5):98, 1985 oa

diaphragmatic hernia. 26(6):68, 1985 oa

neonatal necrotizing enterocolitis: an overview. 26(5):57, 1985 oa patent omphalomesenteric cysts. 26(2):91, 1985 oa

continued

Index continued

pulmonary sequestration. 26(1):70, 1985 oa

second branchial cleft sinus. 26(3):24, 1985 oa

Spigelian hernias in infants and children. 26(6):73, 1985

PERFORATION
stercoraceous ulcer and perforation of the colon: a case report and review of the literature. 26(1):57, 1985 oa

PLASTIC SURGERY
musculocutaneous flaps. 26(6):85, 1985 s

PNEUMOTHORAX
bilateral simultaneous pneumothorax: management considerations. 26(5):87, 1985 oa

PROPHYLAXIS
prophylaxis in surgery with third generation cephalosporins. 26(5):40, 1985 oa.

PROSTHESES
a silicone prosthesis for gastroesophageal reflux: long-term results. 26(1):29, 1985 oa

PULMONARY PROBLEMS
adult respiratory distress syndrome. 26(3):13, 1985 oa

pulmonary sequestration. 26(1):70, 1985 oa

RECTAL PROBLEMS
rectal tuberculosis. 26(4):41, 1985 oa

RENAL,
seeKIDNEYS

REFLUX
a silicone prosthesis for gastroesophageal reflux: long-term results. 26(1):29, 1985 oa

RESIDENT'S CORNER
acute volvulus of the sigmoid colon: current management. 26(3):65, 1985 oa bilateral simultaneous spontaneous pneumothorax: management considerations. 26(5):87, 1985 oa carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985. oa

chronic constipation: unusual etiology. 26(4):79, 1985. oa

congenital jejunal mucosal diaphragm causing small bowel obstruction in an adult. 26(1):66, 1985 oa

emphysematous cholecystitis: a case report. 26(1):51, 1985 oa gastric rupture and loss of leg pulses in a bulimorectic patient. 26(6):79, 1985 oa

the hazards of pancreatic biopsy: fact or fiction? 26(5):75, 1985 oa

intestinal amyloidosis. 26(4):69, 1985 oa

postmastectomy lymphangiosarcoma: clinical and pathologic features. 26(3):73, 1985 oa

renal oncocytoma. 26(2):85, 1985 oa splenic injury in the adult: splenectomy, splenorrhaphy, or nonoperative managment. 26(6):73, 1985 oa stercoraceous ulcer and perforation of the colon: a case report and review of the literature. 26(1):57, 1985 oa

the use of an automatic stapling device for rapid creation of a silastic chimney in patients with gastroschisis. 26(4):63, 1985 oa

transaxillary first rib resection for thoracic outlet syndrome: indications and techniques. 26(6):55, 1985 oa

SEQUESTRATION
pulmonary sequestration. 26(1):70, 1985 oa

SILASTIC CHIMNEY
the use of an automatic stapling device for rapid creation of a silastic chimney in patients with gastroschisis. 26(4):63, 1985 oa

SILICONE
a silicone prosthesis for gastroesophageal reflux: long-term results. 26(1):29, 1985 oa

SINUS
second branchial cleft sinus. 26(3):24, 1985 oa

SOFT TISSUE
quantitative use of fluorescence in planning of soft tissue incisions. 26(2):63, 1985. oa

SPLEEN
nonparasitic splenic cysts: case presentations and a review of the literature. 26(6):37, 1985 oa splenic injury in the adult: splenectomy, splenorrhaphy, or nonoperative management. 26(6):73, 1985 oa

calibrated gastrojejunostomy for gastric bypass. 26(3):40, 1985 oa the use of an automatic stapling device for rapid creation of a silastic chimney in patients with gastroschisis. 26(4):63, 1985 oa

STOMACH
gastric rupture and loss of leg pulses in a bulimorectic patient. 26(6):79, 1985 oa

STOMAS
a new method of stoma control. 26(3):81, 1985 oa

STONES, URINARY
nephroscopic manipulation of stones. 26(2):83, 1985 s

SURGERY PROBLEMS, GENERAL
general surgery problems. 26(4):84, 1985 s

SYMPOSIA
general surgery problems. 26(4):84, 1985 s

microcomputers in surgical practice and research. 26(3):81, 1985 s morbid obesity. 26(1):71, 1985 s

musculocutaneous flaps. 26(6):85, 1985 s

nephroscopic manipulation of stones. 26(2):93, 1985 s

urinary tract infections. 26(5):99, 1985 s

THORACIC OUTLET SYNDROME (TOS)
the current role of electrodiagnostic testing in thoracic outlet syndromes. 26(6):49, 1985 oa transaxillary first rib resection for thoracic outlet syndrome: indications and techniques. 26(6):55, 1985 oa

retrotracheal, obstructing mediastinal thymic cyst. 26(2):69, 1985 oa

THYROID
nonthyroid tumors of the neck. 26(1):13, 1985 oa

TRACHEA
retrotracheal, obstructing mediastinal thymic cyst. 26(2):69, 1985 oa varied spectacular tumors causing deviation of the tracheolaryngeal complex. 26(5):47, 1985 oa

TRAUMA
adult respiratory distress syndrome. 26(3):13, 1985 oa

chronic constipation: unusual etiology. 26(4):79, 1985 oa development of a cerebral spinal fluid fistula following a stab wound to the neck. 26(3):47, 1985 oa pancreatic trauma. 26(6):11, 1985 oa

splenic injury in the adult: splenectomy, splenorrhaphy, or nonoperative management. 26(6):73, 1985 oa

TUBERCULOSIS
rectal tuberculosis. 26(4):41, 1985 oa

TUMORS
carcinoma of the gallbladder presenting as a small bowel obstruction. 26(5):91, 1985 oa

nonthyroid tumors of the neck. 26(1):13, 1985 oa

patent omphalomesenteric cysts. 26(2):91, 1985 oa

preventing postoperative wound infections in major oncologic head and neck surgery. 26(4):23, 1985 oa

renal oncocytoma. 26(2):85, 1985 oa

retrotracheal, obstructing mediastinal thymic cyst. 26(2):69, 1985 oa

update in primary potentially curable breast cancer therapy. 26(2):13, 1985 oa varied spectacular tumors causing deviation of the tracheolaryngeal complex. 26(5):47, 1985 oa

stasis leg ulcers: compression therapy localized by use of sponge rubber. 26(5):15, 1985 oa stercoraceous ulcer and perforation of the colon: a case report and review of the literature. 26(1):57, 1985 oa

ULTRASOUND
a comparison of angiography and ultrasound in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(5):31, 1985 oa

URINARY PROBLEMS
nephroscopic manipulation of stones. 26(2):93, 1985 s

renal oncocytoma. 26(2):85, 1985 oa

urinary tract infections. 26(5):99, 1985 s

VASCULAR PROBLEMS
a comparison of angiography and ultrasound in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(5):31, 1985 oa gastric rupture and loss of leg pulses in a bulimorectic patient. 26(6):79, 1985 oa noninvasive techniques in the diagnosis of carotid artery disease. 26(4):55, 1985 oa

renovascular hypertension and pancake kidney. 26(6):44, 1985 oa

VASCULAR SURGERY
direct venous surgery for venous valvular insufficiency of the lower extremity: updated experience. 26(1):35, 1985 oa

the management of acute internal carotid occlusion: a reassessment. 26(2):75, 1985 oa

sequential femorocrural bypass grafting. 26(3):51, 1985 oa transposition of the inferior vena cava complicating an aortofemoral bypass graft. 26(4):34, 1985 oa

acute volvulus of the sigmoid colon: current management. 26(3):65, 1985 oa
